15. According to Sunni Law of Inheritance, it is only the widow and children who are entitled to succeed to the pension as the brother is altogether excluded. In the present case, the pension may be made out in the name of the widow for herself and the children of the deceased. The share of the widow is 1/8 - Of the remaining 7/8, sons get a double share and daughters a single share, as residiaries. So that share of each son will be 2 x1/12 x 7/8 and each daughter will get 1/12 x 7/8. See Mulla (Article 50 & 52) Principles of Mahomedan Law.

SUBJECT:—

SIR,

I have the honor to state that one Murtuja Beig son of Khasim Beig was a Sarjapur Jahagir Pensioner drawing a pension of Rs.1-11-11 under Government order No.52-12528 dated 29th January 1902. It is reported that Murtuja Beig died on the 18th June 1922 leaving behind a wife Khatijabi, 4 sons and 4 daughters.

The widow prays that the pension may be made out in her name, but the deceased pensioner has a younger brother Ismail Beig.

The Sub-Division Officer after recording the statements of the persons concerned reports that the pension may be equally divided between Ismail Beig and Khatujabi for the benefit of her children.

The recommendation of the Sub-Division Officer seems reasonable and the same may be sanctioned.

The file of papers received with the Dodballapur Sub-Division Officer's Memo No.A-2-680/26-27 dated 24th June 1927 is herewith submitted.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
Bangalore District.
